Daffodils for Spring Flowers

No garden is complete without a liberal planting of Daffodils or Narcissus. Perfectly hardy, they grow and produce abundantly in almost any soil and, when not cut, are unsurpassed for pot-culture for winter flowering and are unsurpassed for naturalizing.

Our Daffodil bulbs are grown for us in Oregon, where climate and the skill of America's leading Daffodil specialist, Mr. Jan de Graaf, are combined to produce the very best.

Note. The trumpet, crown, or cup is the center of the flower; the perianth is the surrounding row of petals or wings. (EE) Extra Early; (E) Early; (M) Midseason; (L) Late.

Fine informal perianth of ivory-white, and well-proportioned, long slim trumpet of pale primrose changing to shell-pink at the densely fringed edge. Delicately beautiful but of exceptional substance, long lasting. (E) 3 for 55c.; $2.15 per doz.; $16.50 per 100.

Out of the West, land of enchantment, comes a fabulous new group of hardy Lilies—plants bursting with vigor, full of rugged health that will be the highlight of your garden. Graceful or bold, soft-colored or brilliant, in brazen giants with vibrant colors or small, refined and in modest white, they come for every purpose and taste and in all shapes and sizes.

These glorious new Lilies were grown for you in Oregon, on the slopes of lovely Mount Hood. Order them now: select a spot for them in the garden, sunny, well-drained and if possible with a humus-rich, deep, porous soil. The bulbs will be shipped with their full root-system intact, as living plants, direct from our grower to you.

Why buy Lilies the mail-order way? Because they are living plants. Unlike the tulips and hyacinths that are fully dormant for months, Lilies never sleep. They should be planted back with the least possible delay.

From the fertile mountain slopes in Oregon to your garden they come, packed in damp peat moss, just as fast as the mails will carry them. Usually harvested and packed the day they are shipped, they will be full of vigor, ready to grow in your garden.

If not included with this catalog, write or phone us for our new Lily folder, beautifully illustrated in full color, complete with descriptions and prices.
